LB87 allows age 18 and up to consent to healthcare. She shared that LB326 provides eligibility for certain children under the Medicaid Medical Assistance Act which ensures Medicaid eligibility until a youth's nineteenth birthday, if they're already eligible. He shared that they hope to let the youth guide what future discussions would look like.

Schiermeister noted that DHHS is currently serving around 200 youth in b2i. He shared that a new employee has been hired for b2i. Jordan Housch has started as a B2i IC. She is a former CFS Specialist in Lincoln but will also be helping in other areas as needed. Schiermeister shared that average caseloads are sitting around 16.9. The addition of Jordan, once fully trained, will even out the caseload sizes.
