8. Center for Coordinated Assistance Overview

Chair Menzel introduced Cassy Blakely from the Center for Coordinated Assistance to the States, who joined via web conference and discussed the work and planning for Nebraska to come back into Title II compliance. She shared a presentation. Members discussed the presentation and the project. Adam Anderson noted that he will share the presentation with the group. Chair Menzel welcomed questions regarding the process.

9. Legislative Update

NCJJ Chair Menzel shared an update regarding the legislative resolutions and interim studies. She noted that the Judiciary has finished up hearings. She shared that there is an upcoming hearing regarding LR354, which deals with educational experiences and outcomes of youth in foster care. She added that the hearing for LR399 occurred in October regarding the Problem-Solving Court. She also noted that LR420, dealing with special education needs has yet to have a hearing scheduled, and LR438, the deals with identifying policy changes regarding data sharing and communication among state and local agency responsible for the care and rehabilitation of youth, has an invite-only hearing scheduled. Lastly, Menzel shared that LR404 has Brian Halstead shared info regarding LR438 and the update that will be given by the Education Commissioner.

Tami Soper shared information regarding a town hall meeting held by Senator McKinney. She noted that it was well attended, and she expected to some sort of policy to come from that town hall.

10. NCJJ Subcommittee Updates

a. Executive Subcommittee

Chair Menzel noted that work has been done on pulling in CCAS. She noted that some Coalition Members will be able to attend CJJ R/ED conference the following week.

b. Community Planning Advisory Subcommittee

Chair Menzel and Erin Wasserberger noted that the Subcommittee met in August. Wasserberger noted the group is working on redoing the community planning template. She noted feedback received that the previous template was difficult to use. She also shared that the group is working on conference presenters for a CBA conference, June 14-16 at the Graduate Hotel in Lincoln.

c. Juvenile Diversion Subcommittee

Amy Hoffman noted they are working on an assessment tool, that is currently being piloted in a couple counties. Hoffman shared that they are finalizing the scoring and hopefully will be training in the summer at the CBA conference in June. She noted that the tool is called the Nebraska Screening Assessment Tool.

d. Grant Review Subcommittee

Erin Wasserberger noted that the group met recently. She shared the group released grants on October 21, which will be due on December 21. She noted that on November 18 there is a webinar for assistance. Wasserberger noted that the group reached out to all nonparticipating tribes and communities. Additionally, she noted the group released a grant for unused funds, and $262,724 is still available as of Oct 18. She added that the deadline for those additional funds is December 2. Amy Hoffman noted that the grant awards have been posted to the website.

e. Young Adult Subcommittee

Chair Menzel shared that a meeting has been setup with Youth Move to discuss young adults assisting state advisory groups. She was hopeful that the toolkit will be available in the summer to help

11. JSC Workgroup Updates

a. Access to Services

Erin Curran shared information regarding the recent work of the group. The workgroup shared a handout noting its work.

Tammy Sassaman noted that a training system called Second Step is being used that focuses on prevention services that can be implemented at the school level. Members discussed the availability of services and inviting community collaboratives to the discussion. Co-Chair Juliano thanked the workgroup for their work and offered the help of the JSC where needed.

b. Racial & Ethnic Disparities

Tami Soper shared information regarding the work of the workgroup. She noted the recommendations made to the JSC and in turn the annual report. She hoped that recommendations can be made regarding the intersection of juvenile justice and education and that the workgroup is awaiting the change in leadership at the Department of Education, in that regard. She noted excitement in assisting the state back into Title II compliance. She shared thoughts regarding ideas that came out of the JDAI Conference and the continued racial and ethnic disparities for youth in confinement, as well as juveniles with mental health issues that are confined in facilities that lack mental health training.

c. Youth Rehabilitation and Treatment Centers

Adam Anderson shared recent updates from the YRTC Workgroup. He noted that recently the group has paused to regroup with the help of the new Policy Analyst at the Children's Commission, who starts on November 1.
