Nebraska Children's Commission Membership Openings

The Nebraska Children's Commission is dedicated to working collaboratively with the three branches of government along with state, local, community, public and private stakeholders to enhance practices and programs to improve the safety and well-being of children and families in Nebraska. As an advisory body, the Commission makes recommendations related to child welfare and juvenile justice reform to the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature and the Governor.

The Nebraska Children's Commission is seeking the following voting representatives:

- A biological parent currently or previously involved in the child welfare or juvenile justice system
- A young adult previously in foster care
- A representative of a federally recognized Indian tribe residing within the State of Nebraska and appointed from a list of three nominees submitted by the Commission on Indian Affairs
- 12 child welfare and juvenile justice systems stakeholders

Applications can be submitted via the Governor's website or printed and mailed to the attention of his office. Please submit your application by Friday, April 30, 2021.

Ex-Officio, non-voting members (below) do not need to complete an application.

- Chairperson of the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature or a committee member designated by the chairperson
- Chairperson of the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature or a committee member designated by the chairperson
- Chairperson of the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature or a committee member designated by the chairperson
